A. PURPOSE

Navi AMC Limited (“AMC/ the Company”) believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour. The Company is committed to developing a culture where it is safe for all employees and Directors to raise concerns about any unacceptable practice and any event of misconduct.

Navi AMC Limited has robust institutional mechanisms in place for the prevention of insider trading, including a policy on dealing with leakage/suspected leakage of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”), viz. Suspected Leakage Policy. The Suspected Leakage Policy, inter alia, sets out the policies and procedures for inquiry in case of an actual or a suspected leakage of UPSI, and other concomitant measures as prescribed in law.

The institutional mechanisms for the prevention of insider trading are governed by and subject to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“Regulations”) as amended from time to time and the Code of Conduct.

Accordingly, the “Whistle Blower Policy” (“Policy”) has been formulated by the Board of Directors of the Company and approved by Trustees to provide a framework for its employees, vendors and customers to report to the management instances of unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or about serious irregularities within the Company and in order to ensure that its employees have a clear and predeterminate procedure for reporting of any actual or suspected leak of UPSI, and are duly protected once such leakage is suspected or has taken place as per Regulation 5H (5) of the Regulations. The policy neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work, nor is it a route for taking up a grievance about a personal situation. The purpose of the Policy is to encourage the Employees/Directors to report unethical behaviours, malpractices, wrongful conduct, fraud, violation of the company’s policies & Values, violation of law by any employee without any fear of retaliation and to build and strengthen a culture of transparency and trust within the organization.

Having a Whistle blower policy reflects the management commitment to ethical standards in the conduct of business.

B. SCOPE

This Policy focuses on complaints such as financial or operational mismanagement / irregularities, preferential treatment to certain stakeholders, conflict of interest, violation of legal or regulatory provisions, etc., or in respect of employee misconduct such as bribery and corruption, management instances of unethical behavior, fraud or violation of any code of ethics or code of conduct.

This Policy also focuses on the procedure to be followed by a Whistleblower while making a Protected Disclosure and the protection of the interest of such Whistleblowers.

C. DEFINITIONS

"Audit Committee" means the Audit Committee constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with Section 177 of the Companies Act 2013.

D. APPLICABILITY

This Policy applies to all the employees (including outsourced, temporary and on contract personnel), and Directors. This Policy encourages all the eligible individuals to report Protected Disclosures which the complainant believes in good faith.

E. Role of a Whistleblower

The Whistleblower’s role is that of a reporting party with reliable information to the chairman of Audit committee or Chief Executive Officer or Chief Compliance Officer or all. They are not required or expected to act as investigators or finders of facts, nor would they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case. In the event that the Whistleblower has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that there has been a Leakage of UPSI, he/she must promptly report the same in the manner prescribed in this Policy. A Whistleblower should not act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by authorities as envisaged in the Suspected Leakage Policy.

The Company expects that a Whistleblower will maintain as confidential any information provided to the Whistleblower by Employees during investigation or of which the Whistleblower becomes aware because of the Whistleblower’s ongoing participation in the investigation.

F. GUIDELINES

- To ensure that this Policy is adhered to, and to assure that the concern will be acted upon seriously, the Company will:
- Ensure that the Whistle Blower and/or the person processing the Protected Disclosure is not victimized for doing so;
- Treat victimization as a serious matter including initiating disciplinary action on such person/(s);
- Ensure confidentiality;
- Not attempt to conceal evidence of the Protected Disclosure;
- Take disciplinary action, if any one destroys or conceals evidence of the Protected Disclosure made/to be made or prevents, or exercises coercion or undue influence on, anyone from making a Protected Disclosure;
- Provide an opportunity of being heard to the persons involved especially to the Subject;

G. COVERAGE OF POLICY

The Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place/ suspected to take place involving, but not limited to:

- Abuse of authority
- Breach of contract
- Manipulation of company data/records
- Fraud, or suspected fraud or corruption
- Criminal offence
- Pilferation of confidential/propriety information
- Deliberate violation of law/regulation
- Wastage/misappropriation of company funds/assets
- Breach of employee Code of Conduct or Rules or Policy or Manual or any Code adopted by the Company
- Breach of code of conduct or violation of the Regulation
- Abuse of children or vulnerable adults (e.g. through physical or sexual abuse, exploitation etc)
- Financial irregularities or malpractice including falsification or destruction of records or any action that can lead to incorrect or misleading financial records and statement.
- Any other unethical, biased, favoured, imprudent event

Policy should not be used in place of the Company grievance procedures or be a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.

H. DISQUALIFICATIONS

While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.

Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

I. Process of dealing with and actual or suspected Leakage of UPSI

All Protected Disclosures shall be dealt with in the manner as set out in the Suspected Leakage Policy.

J. Protection

No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistleblower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against a Whistleblower. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistleblower against any adverse action, i.e., no action will be taken against the Whistleblower solely on the basis of Whistleblower having made a Protected Disclosure. Such actions include retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistleblower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions, including making further Protected Disclosure ("Adverse Actions"). The Company reserves the right to initiate appropriate action against persons who are seen to be undertaking Adverse Actions against a Whistleblower, only on the account of Whistleblower making a Protected Disclosure.

The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistleblower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistleblower is required to give evidence in criminal, regulatory or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will endeavor to arrange for the Whistleblower to receive advice about the procedure, as permissible in law.

The identity of the Whistleblower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.

Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary procedures already taking place concerning a Whistleblower.

Any other person assisting the Whistleblower reporting an actual or suspected Leakage of UPSI shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistleblower.

K. INVESTIGATION PROCESS

PART A

A Whistleblower can report one or more instance of an actual or suspected Leak of UPSI in writing to the Compliance Officer with a copy to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director of the Company, along with the relevant information on the basis of which he/she suspects or has concluded that there was a Leakage of UPSI.

In the event that the instance of an actual or suspected Leakage of UPSI concerns the Compliance Officer or the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director, the same may be reported to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee.

Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern. The Audit Committee may decide the matter as it deems fit.

In exceptional cases, where the Whistle Blower is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation and the decision, s/he can make a direct appeal to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the AMC.

L. PROTECTION

No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistleblower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company believes a strong and effective “Whistle Blower Policy” constitute an essential part of its business principles and will not support or countenance any unfair treatment that might be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blower.

Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blower against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, discrimination, any type of harassment, biased behaviour or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower’s right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. These events will be called ‘Discriminatory actions’ and constitute a breach of the Company’s principles and can, if proven, lead to suitable disciplinary action including loss of employment. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure.

Thus, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation or furnishing evidence shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

Suitable action will be taken against complainant in case of repeated frivolous complaints.

The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistleblower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistleblower is required to give evidence in criminal, regulatory or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will endeavor to arrange for the Whistleblower to receive advice about the procedure, as permissible in law.

The identity of the Whistleblower will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.

Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary procedures already taking place concerning a Whistleblower.
